JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

A SENTIMENTAL STORY.

SIMON SHORT'S SON SAMUEL.

Shrewd Simon Short sewed shoes. Seventeen summers, speeding storms, spreading sunshine, successively saw Simon's small, shabby shop still standing staunch; saw Simon's selfsame squeaking sign still swinging, silently specifying: "Simon Short, Smithfield's sole surviving shoemaker. Shoes sewed, soled superfinely." Simon's spry, sedulous spouse, Sally Short, sewed shirts, stitched sheets, stuffed sofas. Simon's six stout, study sons—Seth, Samuel, Scipio, Saul, Silas, Shadrach—sold sundries. Sober Seth sold sugar, starch, spices; simple Sam sold saddles, stirrups, screws; sagacious Stephen sold silks, satins, shawls; skeptical Saul sold silver salvers; selfish Shadrach sold salves, shoestrings, soap, saws, skates; slack Silas sold Sally Short's stuffed sofas.

Some seven summers since, Simon's second son, Samuel, saw Sophia Sofronia Spriggs somewhere. Sweet, sensible, smart Sofronia Spriggs. Sam soon showed strange symptoms. Sam seldom stayed storing selling saddles. Sam sighed sorrowfully, sought Sophia Sofronia's society, sung several serenades slyly. Simon sarmed, scolded severely, and Sam seemed so silly singing such shameful, senseless songs. "Strange, Sam should slight such splendid sales! Strutting spendthrift! Shattered brained simpleton!"

"Softly, softly, sire," said Sally, "Sam's smitten: Sam's spied some sweetheart!"

"Sentimental schoolboy!" snarled Simon.

"Smitten! stop such stuff." Simon sent Sally's snuff-box spining, seized Sally's scissors, smashed Sally's spectacles, scattered several spools. "Sneaking scoundrel! Sam's shocking silliness shall surcease." Scowling Simon stopped speaking, starting swiftly stoopward, Sally sighed sadly. Summoning Sam, she spoke sweet sympathy. "Sam," said she, "Sire seems singularly snappy; so, sonny, stop strolling streets, stop smoking, spending specie superfluously, stop spluttering so, stop singing serenades, stop short; sell saddles, sell saddle sensible; see Sophia Sofronia Spriggs soon; sue's sprightly; she's stable, so solicit, sue, secure Sophia Sofronia Spriggs speedily, Sam."

"So soon! so soon!" said Sam standing stock still.

"So soon, surely," said Sally, smilingly; "specially since sire shows such spirits."

So Sam, somewhat scared, sauntered slowly, shaking stupendously.

Sam soliloquises:

"Sophia Sofronia Spriggs, Spriggs—Short—Sophia Sofronia Short—Samuel Short's spouse—sounds splendid! Suppose she should say—. She shan't—she shan't!"

Soon Sam spied Sophia starching shirts, singing softly.

Seeing Sam, she stopped starching, saluting Sam smilingly. Sam stampered shockingly.

"Spl-spl-spl splendid summer season, Sophia."

"Somewhat sultry," suggested Sophia.

"Sar sartin, Sophia," said Sam. (Silence seventeen seconds.)

"Selling saddles still, Sam?"

"Sar-sartin," said Sam, starting suddenly.

"Season's somewhat sudorific," said Sam, stealthily staunching streaming sweat, shaking sensibly.

"Sartin," smiling significantly. "Sip some sweet sherbert." (Silence sixty seconds.)

"Sire shot sixty snipe, Saturday," said Sophia

"Sixty! shoo!" said Sam. (Silence seventy-seven seconds.

"See sister Susan's sunflowers," said Sophia, socially silencing such stiff silence.

Sophia's sprightly sauciness stimulated Sam strangely, so Sam suddenly spoke sentimentally:

"Sophia, Susan's sunflowers seem saying, 'Samuel Short, Sophia Sofronia Spriggs, stroll serenely, seek some sequestered spot, some sylvan shade. Sparkling springs shall sing soul-stirring strains; sweet songsters silence secret sighings, supersangelic sylphs shall'—

Sophia snickered; so Sam stopped.

"Sophia," said Sam solemnly.

"Sam," said Sophia.

"Sophia, stop smiling, Sam Short's slaves. Sam's seeking some sweet spouse, Sophia."

Sophia stood silent.

"Speak, Sophia, speak! such suspense speculates sorrow."

"Seek sire, Sam, seek sire."

So Sam sought sire Spriggs. Sire Spriggs said "sartin."

THE MORAL SITUATION.

A DARK PICTURE—BUT IS IT NOT A TRUTHFUL ONE?

The Rev. W. T. Clark has painted a dark picture of the moral situation; but who will say that the shades are too deep, or its outlines too bold? To enable our readers to judge for themselves, we quote the following passage:

The reaction of the war on taste, habits, ambitions and morals of our people, has proved damaging. The old order of things has been broken up. The leaders of other days have been left behind, if not forgotten. Ideas and usages which had become familiar are thrown aside. New men, new customs, new notions, are in the ascendant. The low have been lifted up. Followers have become leaders.

Beggars of yesterday are millionaires to-day, and set the fashion for whoever is foolish enough to follow their lead. To get money and to spend it in luxury, display, and dissipation, are the ruling passions of the day. Such an intense and insane rush and struggle for wealth, such ruinous extravagance of expenditure, such a delirium for the fluttering fripperies of fashion, this country has never witnessed before.—And, alas, not only taste, refinement purity and piety have suffered unspeakable detriment and diminution, but even honesty—the only firm basis of commercial prosperity, the only sure support of social order, the essential condition of individual and national well being—has given way before the steady sapping and mining of immoral customs and the fatal strain of a false ambition. Speculation—the proper name for gambling on the street and at the boards—is trenching on the line of legitimate business and eating out the heart of honorable enterprise.

Frauds and villainies deserving the severest punishment are perpetrated almost openly and confessed without shame. Scarcely an article of food but is nauseous with adulterations. Coffee is made of stale ship bread and oil nuts, milk is thick with disease, and wine is a compound of drugs and damnation.

Our streets and public places are full of intemperance, and not only do young men and old fall before it by the hundred, but even boys and women wear its fire blush on their cheeks, and reel and totter under its influence on the sidewalk. Gambling is a business carried on less publicly, but scarcely less extensively than many honorable avocations, and the gamblers include every class, from the boy of 15 to the sons of 60. Indeed, every vice on the black catalogue of transgression has more than doubled in volume and in victims within a dozen years and our young men, the pride and hope of the nation, fall before the subtle destroyers faster than they fell during the Southern campaigns. Marriages are diminishing. Homes are breaking up. Amusements are vitiated with vulgarity. Echoes of profanity fill the air.

The streets are mined with pitfalls of vice, and crimes are so frequent that they have ceased to shock or even to startle us; indeed, we expect an account of a wholesale robbery, divorce case, and murder as spice for our breakfast. Many of our judges seem to imagine that it is our business to protect criminals from justice, and persecute and prosecute and punish witnesses until they are afraid to testify in court. Many of our cities are at the mercy of banditti who plunder by ordinance and pick pockets by tax. The lobby is the most powerful branch of the legislature, and almost any measure can be moneyed into law. Half of the revenue officers are suspected of peculation, and it is estimated that a single interest defrauded the government out of half a million dollars last year.

MEETING AT MORRISVILLE.

Saturday last was a fine day for corn planting. For this reason we anticipated a small turnout at Morrisville, where we had been invited to make a speech to the people of Wake. We were as much surprised at the number as pleased at the zeal which animated the people in that portion of the county. There were men from Orange, Chatham and Wake counties present.

To speak of the meeting as one full of animation and zeal, would ill describe the feeling that prevailed; it was one of indignation and resentment against the corrupt administration, which has brought shame, loss, want and degradation upon the State.

We gave them what Pike would call "the old editorial;" it was all about Governor Holden and the corruption of his carpet bag administration; with the new corruptions as developed by the sale of $90,000 acres of the richest lands of the State at 16 cents per acre; and the developments of the Bragg Committee. How, at one Court the Judge was pained to know the "Grand Jury had been tampered with," and at the next Court the Grand Jury and the people were pained to know the Court "had been tampered with."

There was not a single Radical at the meeting, as we were informed. At the last election there was but one white Radical vote cast at this precinct, and he handed in his ballot without giving his name and left the ground immediately. A messenger was sent to overtake him and get his name, that his vote might be counted. We told the people how one of the Governor's Railroad Presidents gave Dr. Sloan $30,000 of their money.

How Littlefield, another of the Governor's Railroad Presidents, gave Tim Lee, their Sheriff, from Boston, $10,000 of their money.

We told them that a sensible Republican lately said to the Governor, that the Conservatives were like a caged lion; they did not know their strength, and as soon as they found it out, they would beat his party 30,000 votes.

We told them the Wake lions were all caged in Raleigh; outside of that city the Wake lions knew their strength and would show it and make it felt in August next.

Captain DeCarteret, Col. William H. High and B. Y. Rogers, Esq., made speeches which were well received and much applauded.

We never attended a more pleasant and agreeable meeting of the people. Lorenzo Dow would have called it a "refreshing meeting."

At evening all quietly dispersed, no one drunk, no one cursed, as did the Governor before the Chief Justice, no one cried "Hell! Order!" as did one of our members in Congress. If Morrisville could infuse some of its manly spirit in this street-working, market-building city, Wake would no longer send to Boston to import a Sheriff or to Bussard's Bay for a Superintendent of Public Instruction. Oh that the caged lions may soon find out their strength.

PUT THIS AND THAT TOGETHER.

In a Washington telegram of Friday, we read, "In the Senate, Abbott, of North Carolina, made a speech on the Georgia Bill, a little out of the usual line, by favoring a national military police for the South to preserve law and order. He appeared to favor the new Radical policy, which is gradually developing for policing the South with an armed force."

The following from the New York Herald shows the result of such lying slanders as those set afloat by such poisonous, black-hearted villains as Abbott and others, now in Washington.

"POSTPONEMENT OF THE GENERAL AMNESTY.—According to the statement given our readers from one of our Washington correspondents on the subject the President had intended, with the restoration of Texas, sending up a message to Congress proposing a universal amnesty; but in consequence of the renewed disturbances in North Carolina, Tennessee and other Southern States, resulting from the foolish courses of unreconstructed rebels, General Grant has concluded to wait a little longer. He does not think that the Southern people are in the proper frame of mind for universal absolution just yet, and that when they are they will show their faith by their deeds. The leading spirits among the Southern people, therefore, will do well to turn their attention to the restoration of law and order."

ANOTHER KU KLUX OUTRAGE.—For the benefit of the Standard, who is anxious to gather such statistics, we copy the following from the Fayetteville Eagle of the 14th inst. When will these outrages cease!

On Saturday night, 9th inst., Harrison Maner, colored, was shot dead in his house on the Clinton road some three miles east of Fayetteville. He is said to have been a quiet, inoffensive man. A jury of inquest was called Sunday evening, and they with the coroner examined witnesses and investigated the case until Tuesday evening when they returned a verdict.

One Jake Manuel, colored, is charged with the murder, and the circumstantial evidence seems very conclusive that he is the guilty party. The jury so report, and he is now in prison. A family feud or domestic jealousy is said to have caused the sad affair.

THE RADICAL CONVENTION.

The Standard of yesterday gives a partial report of the Republican Convention held in the Court House here on Saturday; enough, perhaps, for all practical purposes, but not enough to gratify the curiosity of even some of its friends.

For instance, it made no allusion whatever to the previous chimney corner caucus, in which the business for the Convention was "cut and dried" before the bell was rung calling in the outsiders to say "aye," to what was fixed up for them.

The Standard also failed to portray the little episode in which James Harris the colored aspirant to the "long term," gave the "lie," to Jimmy Doyle, who attempted to interfere in the private arrangement of the wire-pullers.

We should judge from the long array of names reported as delegates to the State Convention in May, that Wake county is expected to have a preponderating influence in that body, there being 145 names on the list. From these however may be deducted eleven who will not participate, unless they lie mightily, which we have no idea they will do.

A great many are wondering why it was that our friend and neighbor, R. C. Badger, Esq., was first recommended for the "short term," and afterwards withdrawn."—Of course this is a mere matter of curiosity, and if the Convention don't explain it, we can't. We heard it suggested by one of the faithful, that Dick's references were not considered satisfactory, and it was thought best to show him what they were willing to do under better guarantee, and then not do it until the guarantee shall be given.—We know nothing about it. If we were to venture a suggestion, however, it would be that the "long term" would be a more acceptable bait; and even a State Senatorship would be preferable to the "short term."

We forgot to mention that the names of all the Republican county officials were added to the above 145, which seemed to us a movement to "make assurance doubly sure," as their names were pretty well all in the list originally reported. We wish this feature of the proceedings particularly noted by the people, as it shows not only the fact that the same policy that has heretofore guided the party, is to be continued, but that the same men are to continue to "run the machine."

We shall notice the resolutions when they are authoratively endorsed by the Grand Sanhedrim. We would give a pretty thing—something not very costly—to know who drew that second resolution.—We are somewhat struck also with the third resolution, which declares for "free schools, free speech, free labor, free thought, free talk and free walk." We are afraid if the last privilege is unconditionally granted by law, that mischievous persons will feel themselves at liberty to step into any man's premises they please, and that might create unpleasantness.

The Standard casually observes that "the meeting was then addressed by Mr. Post Master Rogers," which means our Calvin. We happened to step into the Court House just as "Mr. Post Master Rogers" was in what seemed to be a sermon on the text of the Conservative address. He had read and skipped along, trying to find something he thought would do to find fault with, and had finally come down to the "Executive Central Committee," where he halted and asked the question, "Who are the men whose names are on this committee?" Just at this point the "committee on delegates" came in an cut him short before anybody had a chance to answer his interrogatory. We shall not attempt to enlightened the gentleman in regard to this matter, on which he felt or feigned so much ignorance, but we will venture the intimation that no man whose name is on that Committee was ever accused by Billy Smith or any body else, of stealing—(that was the word used)—of stealing $3,000 from a Railroad, nor has one of them ever been indicted for swearing to too much mileage as a public officer. It is unpleasant to have to allude to such things, but when a man lives in a glass house he ought to be careful how he begins to throw stones.

RALEIGH, April 18, 1870.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Editor Sentinel:

MY DEAR SIR:—In your issue of to-day, there appears an editorial, criticising the opinion of His Honor, Judge Watts, in the case recently tried in our Superior Court, of the State vs. Jo Hardee. It is stated that the facts in the case were gathered from a member of the Bar and that I appeared as counsel for the defendant. As the impression seems to have been made by the article alluded to (as has been mentioned to me) that the facts were communicated to you by myself, I desire to state that such is not the case. I am sorry that my name should have been connected with a newspaper publication attacking the decision of a Court, especially as I was interested as counsel in the cause.

By publishing the above, you will oblige.

Yours, very truly,
C. M. BUSBEE.

We publish the above card of Mr. Busbee, and state that we did not get an iota of the facts in the case alluded to from him. When that much is stated and understood, we cannot conceive of any further grounds for "regret" that he can have on the subject, unless there was a misstatement of the facts. If we gave a correct statement of what occurred, no one can make either more or less of it, than that the rogue, Joe Hardee, will go scot free, (although it was a plain case that he stole the flour,) when his case comes before the Supreme Court. Mr. Busbee believes this, else he was wrong to advise his client to go to the expense of an appeal. And all this will happen just on account of that very peculiar ruling in the case that we alluded to; just the sort of new-fashioned proceedings that allowed a juror withdrawn in the Altman case, charged with the killing of Lassiter, by which a man went scot free who was evidently, guilty of manslaughter, at least.

A SUGGESTION.—The Mount Airy News, suggests, in order to avoid all the trouble of a Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress for that Congressional District, that all hands club in and run brother Haines of the Old North State, OUTRAGE UPON TWO WHITE WOMEN BY NEGRO RUFFIANS IN CAPE FEAR TOWNSHIP.—We hear of a gross outrage perpetrated by two negro ruffians in Cape Fear Township in this county, says the Wilmington Journal of the 16th, upon two white women Tuesday night last. There lives in a small house on the Little Bridge road about 4 miles from this city a family by the name of Wright. About bed time on the night mentioned, Mrs. Wright and her daughter, a young lady about 16 years of age, being alone in the house, a knock was heard at the door. Mrs. Wright went forward, and opened just a crack of the door, saw the faces of two negro men, and asked them what they wanted. Without replying they forced open the door and one of them springing upon Mrs. Wright placed his fingers on her throat and hurled her to the floor. The daughter, jumping forward about this time to the assistance of her mother, was seized by the other ruffian and also borne to the floor. The mind shudders at the fiendish object which was evidently their intent; but Mrs. Wright miraculously escaped from the clutches of the ruffian and sprung from the house. Screaming at the top of her voice she ran towards a neighbor's a few hundred yards distant, and cried for his assistance. Her assailant who was then pursuing her, dreading the approach of the neighbor, turned and fled.—About this time the screams of Mrs. Wright's daughter got beyond the control of her vile assailant, who also got frightened and released her and took to his heels. One of the negroes Mrs. Wright thinks she recognized as having seen before.

Here are more facts for the Standard's column of outrages. Publish them and complete the "record" for which you so eagerly call!

STILL ANOTHER ITEM FOR THE STANDARD'S RECORD.—We clip the following from the Wilmington Journal:

The negroes in the vicinity held a Union League meeting at Shoe Heel on Wednesday night last, and at the breaking up of the assembly returned towards their homes, many of them armed with pistols and guns. Some of this party, invaded the premises of Mr. Alex. MacRae at Argyle, some three or four miles from Shoe Heel and shot the watch dog. After leaving Mr. MacRae's they visited the house of a Mr. Sellars about half a mile distant, and invading his premises also shot and killed the watch dog belonging to that gentleman. The report of the gun caused Mr. Sellars, accompanied by a negro man, to sally forth to ascertain if possible what was the matter. While he and the negro were in the yard about twenty guns and pistol shots were discharged by the party of outragers in a volley, the balls taking effect in the fences, trees and in fact striking almost every object near at hand but Mr. Sellars and the negro. This occurred about 12 or 1 o'clock, and after which performance the Union Leaguers left without further demonstration.

It is conjectured that these demonstrations were made simply to terrify and not to kill. The Standard says the Leagues are disbanded, but this don't look much like it.

PROFESSOR EDWARD WARREN.

At the head of his Profession stands this noble man, and it is with a feeling of glowing pride that North Carolina, his native State, watches him, mounting the lofty pinnacle of a glorious fame. She is proud of her noble son, and well indeed may she be, for in weaving high renown for himself, he twines unfading laurels around her brow. Dr. Warren is indeed no ordinary man! To a rare genius, a mind of elegant and varied accomplishments, he combines a Napoleonic energy with a skill of the highest order. Though comparatively speaking young in years, he stands to-day without a rival among the most gifted and talented of his profession, occupying a proud position, that at once exites the envy and detraction of the malicious, and the reverence and admiration of the truly noble and good. During the late war, as Surgeon General of his native State, he displayed an efficiency, zeal, and capacity, that elicited the warmest enthusiasm and commendation, and soldiers from all parts of our sunny South-land, can, and do testify to his noble endowments, his unvaried kindness, and his genius and skill as a Physician. Since then, let Baltimore speak, and do justice to his merits, as she points with the finger of pride, to that noble Institution, the Washington University, a few years ago in the dawn of infancy, now in the prime of a glorious manhood, proudly taking its stand among the first and finest Colleges of the land! But not alone in his public capacity as a medical man and Professor, does he defy competition, but as the private Physician, the friend of the sick and needy, he scarcely has an equal. Combining two qualifications, so rarely found united in a medical man (a man's firmness with a woman's gentleness) he is a Philanthropist in the truest and noblest sense of the term. The poor bear grateful testimony to his great benevolence and generosity, and no physician does a more extensive charity practice. Then Carolina, be proud of thy gifted son! Aid and sustain him in his noble efforts, after a glorious and all enduring fame, and place a stern and unflinching hand upon the mouths of the few, who from envy and jealousy would traduce and slander, or pluck one laurel from his brow!

CAROLINA.

WILKESBORO, N. C.
March 31st 1870.

HON. JOSIAH TURNER JR. Dear Sir:—There was a considerable stir in our quiet little village, when our Representative, Siegrist, and the member from Ashe, Mr. Carson, bearing on his shoulder a huge horn, supposed to be one of Billy Smith's on a smaller scale, arrived here from Raleigh. I reckon the horn was the only thing he could find in the Treasury that he could get hold of, at least it was the only effects he had that was visible. His son, a man about 35 years of age, met him here; the meeting was a very affecting one. When his son saw him coming in at the western part of the town, he (the son) started from Johnson's store, opposite the Court House, at a long trot, making about six feet at a stride, to meet him, and getting within about ten paces of him he hollered; "Blow your horn, Dad, call up your hounds; ole Muse has left us; run off to Jack Horton's, Dad, you've toted the horn a long time, now you must let me tote it awhile;" whereupon the kind father took the burden off his own shoulders and put it on the shoulders of his son. The above was the only salutation; the shaking of hands, the familiar how-d'-ye-do, were all forgotten at sight of the horn. No questions were asked of home or friends; the horn occupied the thoughts of both.

You will confer a favor upon the good citizens of this county by advising us if David is paying off the hands in horns?

Respectfully &c,
WHITE HORN.

For the Sentinel.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:—I see by the Memphis papers and by other correspondents, that the Hon. R. R. Heath, is favorably spoken of for a judgeship in that growing city. I desire to express the gratification which it gives me as well as his numerous friends in the Old North State, to see that he is thus appreciated in his new adopted home. I know that I but express the unanimous sentiment of the Bar, and the general sanction of the public, when I say, North Carolina never had a more acceptable Judge in point of ability, urbanity and professional intercourse.—And our daughter, Tennessee, could not do better, among her learned and able Bar, than select Judge Heath. This is by an old friend from the

ARRIVAL OF GENERAL LEE.

Yesterday afternoon, about four o'clock the Nick King arrived at her wharf, having on board General Robert E. Lee and his daughter. A large crowd of citizens had assembled upon the dock to witness the arrival and to catch a glimpse of the man so honored and beloved by every Southern heart. As soon as the gang plank was put ashore a self constituted committee consisting of Col. Sanderson, Col. Daniels, Col. Fleming, Dr. Maxwell and H. T. Bays, stepped aboard and sought the General in the upper saloon of the boat. The crowd soon followed, until the boat was filled to its utmost capacity, and as the eager throng passed around with uncovered heads, each one was severally introduced by the Committee and shook hands with the General. At the earnest solicitations of many, the General was finally escorted by the Committee to the upper deck, where he showed himself to the crowd assembled upon the shore. Not a word was spoken; not a cheer was uttered, but the very silence of the multitude spoke a deeper feeling than the loudest hurras could have expressed.

Invitations were extended by the St. James Hotel, the Price House, and other hotels, to the General, and a fine carriage was furnished by Hartridge & Livingston for his accommodation. The Committee, however, had made arrangements to entertain him at the residence of Col. J. J. Daniels, but the General declined stopping and continued up the river on the Nick King, after a stay of little more than a half an hour.

The General looked worn and feeble, but expressed himself as pleased with his journey, and stated that he felt much better since leaving Savannah. The balmy air of Florida was evidently having a good effect.

The General will return on the Nick King to-day, on his way back to Savannah, and during the few hours that the boat will lay here, he will take a drive about the city.

LOBBYING WITH THE LORD—A CHAPLAIN MAKES A SPECIAL PRAYER.

A very unusual occurrence took place in the Iowa House of Representatives a few days ago. The clergyman whose lot it was to open the day's proceedings by imploring the Divine blessing, took occasion to pray earnestly for the passage of a certain appropriation bill, which has elicited a great deal of interest generally throughout the State. He informed the Almighty that the State was abundantly able to afford it. He also sent heavenward the further information that the people demanded it and had largely petitioned for it. He earnestly besought for the members light, grace and strength to enable them to do their whole duty in supporting this meritorious bill. This little episode—the veriest piece of clerical eccentricity (not to charaterize it more pointedly) on record—created a decided sensation in the House, and the good Speaker pounded away for several minutes with his gavel before order was restored.

Glancing over the names of the Executive Committee of Pitt, we see that of Byron Laffin heads the list. We are not able to say whether he will be continued or not; but do say: Thank God, the day of military despotism is past, and old and venerable citizens will no longer be insulted by a military escort. No longer will the general boast of his making one thousand dollars per month while the sons of toil can scarcely obtain bread. We have been informed that he has gone to New York. If so, it will be well for the place that now knows him to know him forever.—Greenville Expositor.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs. Tompkins' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE CO.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

AT the request of General Jno. B. Gordon, President Atlanta Department, I have come to your State to bring prominently before you the claims and merits of the Southern Life Insurance Company. It is under the control of as honorable and as responsible men as there are in the land. It is managed in the most prudent and economical manner and will deal justly and fairly with all.

We have no war to make upon other Insurance Companies, but we do wish to impress upon the people the importance of keeping their money at home. By careful calculation it is estimated that a sum of not less than twelve millions (annually) is sent from the South, to the North for Life Insurance and unless checked will surely prove suicidal to our interests. We ask you to consider how greatly the material interest of this section would be benefitted by the retention of these enormous sums in our midst.

We send no money away to enrich foreign capitalists but every dollar of premium (less expenses) IS INVESTED IN THE STATE FROM WHICH IT IS DERIVED.

This department of the Company has operated both in Georgia and South Carolina, and has done an unprecedentedly large business. Some of the most prominent gentlemen in these States are identified with its interest. Its Board of Directors embrace the names of the ablest financiers, and most successful business men in the South. They are the Trustees of the sacred fund of the widow and orphan. Will you not trust your friends and neighbors; or is it more secure in the hands of a rangers? We appeal to you to assist us in pushing forward this deservedly popular and reliable Southern corporation. Its solvency is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in the United States, its ratio of assets to liabilities the only true test of a Company's strength, fully sustaining this statement.—We would respectfully call attention to the Board of Directors and Stockholders, published in another column, and to our Board of Reference in this State and others.

Mas Gettinger's Spring stock of Millinery—Hats, bonnets, flowers, ribbons, laces, gauze, veils, "and such like" composing a most splendid display; enough to make the men tremble and set the ladies half crazy. Just think of it! Burgor hats; Amanda hats; Tyrolean hats; Jessie hats; Æ na hats; Brewster hats; Princess, Clarence, Stella, Vidar, Pinar, Sues and "shoofly" hats, "sun downs"—and then bonnets. No doubt many ladies would like to know the difference between all these various styles of head gear; well we will tell them—go and see, though, first, and then come back, and by that time we shall have more time to attend to it.

Phil. Thum has put up a large quantity of Boston ice for his summer custom. He also proposes to sell out his Bar Room and Restaurant &c., a good chance for an investment that will pay.

Waltham Watches, see manufacturer's advertisement in this morning's issue.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of the American Watch Co. of Waltham, Mass., in another column.

This company is the oldest and largest watch manufacturing company in the United States, and their watches are so well known that little need be said as to their merits. The company desire specially to caution the public against buying swiss watches bearing colorable imitations of the trademarks of Waltham Watches. On the dial of the watches made by the Waltham Co., the words "American Watch Co." is plainly marked.

Local dealers are everywhere supplied with these watches, (the company declining to retail under any circumstances) and as they are sold at moderate profits purchasers are referred to local dealers everywhere.

Laura Keene with a good dramatic corps will make her first appearance in Raleigh, at Tucker Hall, on Monday, 25th inst., and continue for a season of six nights. During the time will be presented some of the most popular plays in the language, and among them, "Our American Cousin," the piece that was acted at Ford's theatre, Washington City, the night that President Lincoln was shot by Booth.

The formal announcement will appear on Thursday morning.

There are now, at the University of Virginia, thirty three students from the State of North Carolina. Where are the balance of the young men of this State—at home or at college?—Exchange.

Why is it that these young men do not patronize our own University? The facilities for acquiring knowledge are superior, the Faculty is composed of able men, and surely North Carolinians should feel a personal pride in sustaining their own institution.—E. City Carolinian.

This extract shows that the editor of the Carolinian knows nothing of what he is talking about. Those "superior facilities for acquiring knowledge," and that "Faculty composed of able men," look so much like an ironical fling at the concern, that we are afraid it will give offence even to the Board of Trustees. It is true the Institution belongs to North Carolina, but like a good many other things which belong to her, she has no control of it; it has been taken from her and put in the hands of tyros and carpet-baggers, to experiment on, and so far, the experiments have produced no practical results. Hence the people of the State don't care to patronize it—not even the Trustees of it who have sons to educate.

Corns, bunions or bad nails cured without pain or drawing blood, by Dr. Lindoman, Chiropodist. Dr. L. will positively only remain until Wednesday, April 20th. If you have corns don't fail to give him an early call at the Yarborough House. Ladies attended at their residences without extra charge. Remember, until Wednesday, April 20th.

Great Fortunes.—Great fortunes are not easily acquired in these days of sharp competition and base treachery. Even when they are acquired, they too often find the possessor a mere wreck, having made a drudge and slave of himself in toiling incessently for that which he is permitted to hold for a few brief months before he is laid away in the grave. We must confess that in this view of the case, the "GREAT HENDERSON COUNTY, KY. PRIZE SCHEME" has powerful attractions for even the most staid. Here are great fortunes, to be won without haggard toil, and the whole secured by a legal charter, and in the hands of men of the most undoubted integrity. We are ready to aid any of our friends who may command us, in securing tickets or information about this matter.

Mobley's Soda Fount, at Fentress's corner—box of variegated marble, with all the latest fixtures to add superior palatableness to the mineral fluid that is so grateful to the palate, gullet and regions beyond, in the hot and sultry days of summer. Also, ice cream reservoir connection, where that delicious solidified lactage will be kept in readiness for all who may have predilection for that sort of self indulgence.

Vestry Meeting.—A meeting of the Vestry of Christ Church (Episcopal) is requested this (Tuesday) afternoon, at 5 o'clock, at the office of W. H. Jones, Esq., Treasurer of the Church.

Is it not Strange?—The members of the General Assembly of both parties will remember, that near the close of the session, a bill passed both Houses by a strong vote, compelling all Insurance Companies doing business in this State, not incorporated in the United States, to deposit one half of their premiums in the State to indemnify policy-holders. The bill never reached the office, we learn of the Secretary of State. What has become of it? Does any one know? The bill was engrossed and enrolled, it is understood, but what became of it afterwards, is a matter of doubt.

The Ku Klux Case.—The case of the State vs. Barker, Olive and Collins, charged with going to the house of Dicy Johnston, disguised, and whipping her, in October last, which was called on Saturday and set for trial yesterday, was not concluded.—The prosecution got through, and the defense got about half through with their addresses to the jury. The defense will close to-day, and the case go to the jury.

Mr. Solicitor Cox, assisted by Messrs. S. F. Phillips and Fab. H. Busbee represent the State, and Messrs. Fowle & Badger and R. W. York, appear for the defendants.—We will notice the case more fully after a decision is rendered.

Biddy, colored, aged about one year, had her head nearly severed from her body by a single stroke of a hatchet in the hands of a colored boy, in Western Ward, on Saturday evening last. She died almost immediately.

The Hibernicon from some cause did not do as well here as its merits deserved.—Last week being the closing of Lent had something to do with the thin houses, and last night was so unpromising in regard to the weather that the doors were not opened at all. We witnessed the exhibition on Friday night and were pleased, amused, and interested.

Sheriff's Settlement.—The Sheriff of Wake County has settled with the Public Treasurer in full for $54,425.81. This is the next largest payment made by any County in the State, the tax for New Hanover being $58,004.55.

Forty years ago, the present tax of Wake county would have paid the entire expenses of the State. But then we had not become familiar with a good many luxuries that are now afforded us in way of Government officials, and public men didn't steal half as much then as they find necessary to do now.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

THE EXTENSIVE USE OF THESE WATCHES for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 450 000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watchmaking originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which secure trading by the most skilful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pin on of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mention d improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch guaranteed by the Company.

To prevent imposition, buyers should see that every watch should bear either of the following trade marks.

American Watch Co., - - Waltham.
Appleton, Tracy & Co., - - " P. S. Bartlett, - - - - - "

The Judiciary Committee recommends the indefinite postponement of the bill to prevent prize fighting.

Kellogg introduced a bill granting lands in Vicksburg to the Baton Rouge and New Orleans R. R. Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Drake introduced the following as a 16th amendment:

The United States shall protect each State against domestic violence whenever it shall be shown to the President that such violence exists in such State. Congress shall have power to enforce this amendment.

After a short debate, Drake moved its reference to the Committee on Military Affairs, but it was finally referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Morrill introduced the following:

Resolved, That the Judiciary Committee be instructed to inquire whether corrupt means are employed to influence the vote of any Senator on the pending Georgia bill, with power to send for persons and papers. Passed.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 18.—Revenue to-day $525,000.

The Government has no advices regarding a Fenian raid on Canada.

Coin in the Treasury $112,255,000, including $27,000,000 in Coin certificates; Currency balance $10,250,000.

In the House, among the bills introduced was one granting lands to the Memphis and New Orleans Railroad; one establishing mail steamers between U. S. and Mexico, one to survey the harbor of Corpus Christi, Texas.

Tariff bill resumed and the duty on pig iron discussed to adjournment.

Senate.—The negroes occupying Arlington, desire Congress to lease the property to them.

The Judiciary Committee reported malwarship on the trade-mark law.

A bill appropriating land for the improvement of navigation on the Upper Mississippi, was introduced.

Sumner offered a resolution instructing committee on the District to report a bill securing equal rights on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad.

Mr. Edmunds arose and stated that charges have been brought to his attention in which the names of parties who would to be ready to sustain the same, were given to the effect that attempts had been corruptly made to influence the votes of Senators on the Georgia bill. He did not say upon which side, but these charges were made in such a manner that he did be recreant to his duty as a senator, if he did not notice them. He therefore offered a resolution instructing the committee on the Judiciary to inquire whether any attempts had been made to corruptly influence the votes of Senators on the bill now pending in the Senate, for the admission to representation of the State of Georgia, and with power to that Committee to send for persons and papers. The resolution was adopted.

The Georgia bill was resumed, and Drake, Sumner and Carpenter spoke, but no action was taken.

In explanation of the Georgia corruption resolution, the Star says, "It has been rumored about the Capitol that a prominent Senator was offered a Georgia State bond if he would vote against the Bingham amendment, and the son-in-law of another Senator was offered a large sum of money to influence the vote of his father-in-law against that amendment! In both cases the lobbyist was sent away with a flea in his ear, and the Senators approached in the matter gave the information which led to the introduction of Mr. Edmunds' resolution.

Both Houses are in session to-night.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

MEDICAL.

HENRY'S

CARBOLIC

RENOVATOR!

Based on Science. Prepared with Skill, and all the available ingenuity and experience, that the art of pharmacy of the present day can contribute. And

COMBINING IN CONCENTRATED FORM THE MOST

VALUABLE VEGETABLE JUICES

Known in the history of Medicines for

PURIFYING THE BLOOD,

Imparting

NUTRITION TO THE SYSTEM,

Tone to the Stomach,

And a Healthy action to the Liver, Kidneys, Secretive and Excretive Organs.

A DYING ZOUAVE

lay breathing his last on the battle field, his companions surged on and left him alone. They knew the cause of his approaching end it was the deadly bullet. No friendly voice could cheer him to life—no human skill could save him.

Thousands of Precious Lives are to-day as rapidly sinking, and as surely tottering on to an untimely end, in suffering Agony, Wretchedness, and

Ignor nce of the cause which

Science can arrest and assuage,
Nourish into new Life and Vigor,
And cause the Bloom of Health
To dance once more upon their withered Cheeks.

DISEASE, LIKE A THIEF,

Steals upon its victims unaware, and before they are aware of its attack, posts itself firmly in the system, and through negligent or inattention becomes a sted, and defies all ordinary or temporary treatment to relinquish its merciless grasp.

DO YOU KNOW THE CAUSE OF

The wasted form—the hollow cheek?
The wild eyed face—the shallow complexion
The feeble voice—the sunken, glassy eye?
The emaciated form—the trembling frame?
The treacherous pimple—the torturing sore?
The repulsive eruption—the inflamed eye?
The pimpled face—the rough colorless skin?
and debilitating anhemia of the present age?

The answer is simple, and covers the whole ground in all its phases, viz: the

FANGS OF DISEASE

AND

HEREDITARY TAINT

ARE FIRMLY FIXED IN THE

FOUNTAIN OF LIFE—THE BLOOD.

The

INDISCRIMINATE VACCINATION

during the late war, with diseased Lymph has

TAINTED THE BEST BLOOD

in the entire land. It has planted the germ of the most melancholy disease in the veins of men, women and children on all sides, and nothing short of will Eradicate it root and branch, forever. Such a Remedy is

A HEROIC REMEDY

HENRY'S

RENOVATOR.

On reaching the Stomach, it assimulates at once with the food and liquids therein, and from the moment it passes into the Blood, it attacks disease at its fountain head, in its germ and maturity, and dissipates it through the arteries of the organs with unerring certainty, and sends NEW AND PURE BLOOD BOURDING THROUGH EVERY ARTERY AND VEIN.

The tubercules of Scrofula that sometimes flourish and steal the inner coating of the abdomen, like hornets of corn, are withered, dissolved and eradicated and the diseased parts nourished into life. The Torpid Liver and Inactive Kidneys are stimulated to a healthy secretion, and their natural functions restored to renewed health and activity.

Its action upon the blood, fluids of the body, and Glandular System, are

TONIC, PURIFYING AND DISINFECTANT, its touch disease drops, dies, and the victim of its violence, as it were

LEAPS TO NEW LIFE.

It relieves the entire system of Pains and Aches, calls into the spirits, and imparts a Sparkling brightness to the eye,
A rosy glow to the Cheek,
A ruby tinge to the Lips,
A clearness to the Head,
A brightness to the Complexion,
A buoyancy to the Spirits,
And happiness on all sides.

Thousands have been rescued from the the verge of the grave by its timely use.

This remedy is now offered to the public with the most solemn assurance of its intrinsic medicinal virtues, and powerful Healing properties.

FOR ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE

Kidneys, Retention of Urine,

And Diseases of Women and Children,

Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude and loss of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

IT EXTINGUISHES

Affections of the Bones, Habitual Costiveness, Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, Dyspepsia, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fistula, all Skin Diseases, Liver Complaint, Indigestion, Piles, Pulmonary Diseases, Consumption, Scrofula or King's Evil and Syphilis.

Do not Insure Your Life

UNTIL YOU ASCERTAIN FROM

P. F. PESCUD,

General Agent for North Carolina,

WHY THE

National Life Insurance Company,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

can, and does issue a larger Policy for less money than any other Company, represented in North Carolina.

The National was organized in August 1868. She has issued nearly

10,000 POLICIES,

HAS A CASH CAPITAL OF

$1,000,000,

which was all paid in before a Policy was issued and which has already increased, fifty per cent. All the losses reported to 1st Jan'y last amounted to but $40,000, and as a further evidence of the great care observed in the selection of risks, 924 applications amounting to nearly $3,000,000, were rejected last year. Therefore a solid basis and inducements that none but Stock Companies can afford, is enjoyed by all who prefer the National to Mutual or mixed Companies.

ALL LIABILITY FOR LOSSES IS AVOIDED.

Every man who has a family, should try to create an Estate for their support, when he is taken from them by death—and a very small annuity spent for a Policy secures a larger amount of Cash Assetts, and is far more certain, than the same amount will secure in any other investment, and a more tender expression of love and responsibility could not in any other way be more beautifully expressed.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James P. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans, and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

No Life Insurance Company in the United States offers superior advantages for insurance or investment, than the St. Louis Mutual. It is managed by gentlemen of the highest capacity and standing and it enjoys the largest confidence of those acquainted with Insurance Companies.

Its Policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly and its investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount invested, paying ten per cent per annum.

All its Policies are non-forfeitable and participate in its profits from the beginning.

Dividends declared and applied annually to policy holders on the contribution plan.

The Company is strictly Mutual, and the profits of its business are paid, not to stockholders but to its policy holders.

An equitable surrender value paid to all who through misfortune are unable to keep up their policies.
